Wreckers move in at Jones' house

The wreckers moved into Curlew Avenue in Altona on Monday to demolish the former home of the Jones family.

The house was reduced to blackened framework, rubble and ashes in a fire on June 7.

Mrs. Betty Jones, a Legacy widow and mother of five, had paid off the house and raised her children alone since her husband, Kevin, died in a level-crossing smash 11 years ago.

Mr. Syd Fell, Altona's town clerk, and a member of Legacy began an appeal for the family two weeks' ago.

He wants the appeal to raise enough money by the end of this month to begin the re-building process.

"Mrs. Jones is all right for her daily needs — it's just a home she needs now", he said yesterday.

"I believe if everyone rallies to help, we can do something really constructive by the end of the month.

"A great many people, I know, want to give money to the family personally. But this will merely complicate the matter.

"It will help everyone concerned if donations are handed in at the civic offices, in Civic Parade."

The appeal is being handled by Altona Council, and it is hoped to raise $10,000 by the end of this month.

Mr. Fell this week sent letters to Altona industries urging support for the appeal.

Australian Carbon Black, former employer of Mr. Jones, was one of the first to donate, giving $200 to the fund last Friday.

The Altona Star will publish a complete list of contributors next week.

The Mayor of Altona, Cr. Bill Sommers urged the community's support for the Jones family. "This is a very needy cause," he said.

The Jaycees met last week to organise a 50-50 dance to raise money for the appeal.

The dance will be on Friday, July 2, at 8 p.m., in the Laverton Memorial Hall. John Arnold, one of the group's newest members, is organising the evening.

The Altona City Football Club this week handed over $205 to the appeal.

"Young Wayne Jones

is a winger with our reserves team," Mr. Allan Burkitt, club president told The Star.

"I wasn't there on the night, but I was really proud of the lads when I learnt that an impromptu whip-round had raised more than $200 for the family".

Tyrrells take on supermarkets

Keith and Allan Tyrrell, who run a pharmacy in Pier Street, Altona, have decided to fight the supermarkets.

They believe that to survive in the business world they have to offer more than prescription dispensing and medication.

So they have joined Chemway, a group of 65 city and five country chemists which will attempt to regain customers who now shop for pharmacy articles in supermarkets.

"We don't want to end up like the little grocery shops, which disappeared into big chainstores five or 10 years ago," Mr. Keith Tyrrell said yesterday.

"We have to smash the theory that a pharmacy is an expensive place to shop."

Chemway will buy in bulk, to reduce the price of goods for resale to the public.

The plan is for the competitive group buying programme to bring the chemist's shop back to its role of speciality store with professional staff and the added appeal of "specials".

"Apart from Bradley's in Footscray, we are the only pharmacy in the west to join Chemway," Mr. Tyrrell said.

"We tried to interest the people in Williams-town, but failed."

"The same thing happened in Sunshine."

"Like a lot of professional people, these chemists are against change. I think they're wrong. I believe we have to belong to some sort of group to survive commercially."

"The group will have only one member in each suburb, that is part of our policy."

The official launching of Chemway was held at Dorset Gardens in Croydon on Sunday night, when the uniforms designed for members were modelled.

Members of the group will be dressed in magenta, black and white.

VICTIM MET THEIR EVERY DEMAND

An obliging Goodyear Auto Service Centre in Altona provided everything a gang needed to cart off the safe on Friday night.

It even sustained the gang with coffee from the cafe bar as they worked.

However the manager, Graeme Hildebrand, had been a bit slack — and that was his good luck and the gang's bad luck.

The saga began when the crims broke the side window to Graeme's office.

Evidence they left suggests they had a bit of a try to open the safe but failed and decided to take it away.

They "borrowed" a floor jack to trundle the big heavy safe out of the office and load it on to the business' utility.

They then "borrowed" the tools to file off the inside locks on the vehicle bay.

— Thirsty work this, so the cafe bar came in for attention.

And they were off.

But here Graeme's inconsideration became apparent. The ute's lights had failed the day before, and in his own words: "I had just not had time to fix them".

No one seemed to notice the unit ute trundling from Pier Street to Queen Street, Altona Meadows, but an unmarked police car cruised by as the miscreants were contemplating how to move the safe from the ute into their own car.

Noticing no parking lights on the ute the police car began to back up.

The getaway car decamped with haste, and two men left the ute and went for a high speed stroll in the scrub.

The police gave chase, but lost them.

It was only when they took a second look at the ute that the police noticed its cargo.

FOOTNOTE: Concentrating on the safe, which was empty, the thieves ignored a great haul of cassette radios, mag wheels and tyres.

BALL MAKES $3,493

The Altona Mayoral Ball, held at the Fiesta, in Footscray, raised almost $3½ thousand for the Victorian Civil Ambulance Service.

The final total was $3493 — $3000 of which was handed over during the evening by a representative of the Altona Petrochemical Company.

The ambulance service, which is opening a new station at the corner of Millers and Blackshaws Roads, Altona within the next few weeks, has been solidly supported in its project by Altona Council.

Last year's proceeds from the mayoral ball were also given to the service, and the council also gave an extra donation of $30,000.

An anonymous donation of $250 from Altona will also go towards the station opening.

Electronic group for Musicale

Plastic Platypus, electronic-music group, will perform at a musicale in the home of Mr. Jeff Coster, 18 Rennie Street, Williamstown, from 8 p.m. on Saturday (June 26).

Platypus has been experimenting with making electronic music: cheaply, to bring it within everyone's range.

It included two of Melbourne's most adventurous composers. They are: Warren Burt, who moved recently from California to become lecturer in music at La Trobe University.

Ron Nagorcka, local composer.

An evening full of surprises is promised.

Williamstown, Musicale aims to foster music of all kinds, it is still seeking members.

Visitors are welcome. They are asked to bring a plate and some refreshments. More information from J. Coster (397 6687) or Eunice Morgan (398 1837).

West seeks transport

A delegation has asked the State Transport Ministry to give the western suburbs the same sorts of transport facilities that the eastern suburbs have.

This includes equal facilities in amenities such as bus-stop shelters as well as the frequency of buses, trams and trains.

Mr. Vic Parsons, president of the Western Suburbs Transport Action Committee, headed the delegation. Mr. John Bailey, assistant Director of Transport, met it.

Mr Parsons said later that the committee would like a 10-minute service during peak periods and a 15-minute service at other times.

Giving an example of hardships the west was struggling against, Mr. Parsons said he knew personally of Footscray Institute of Technology students from Keilor who had to walk home after six p.m.

Mr. Bruce Hartnett, social planner for the Western Regional Council for Social Development, a member of the deputation, the committee wanted western suburbs residents to come forward with information about conditions to strengthen claims to the Ministry.

And the committee also wanted the Ministry to tell the community what it was doing to improve transport.

Mrs. Jenny Bowker, coordinator of child services in Deer Park, said: "There are only three sheltered bus stops in all Deer Park."

Deer Park wanted more of these, she said. And timetables on display at all stops would be an advantage.

"Transport from Deer Park to the city is too dear," she said.

"It now costs about a dollar or more for a one-way ride that takes an hour or more."

ALTONA FLATS CODE UPSET BY TRIBUNAL

Altona Council's flats-building code, drawn up last year, will have to be reviewed following a finding by the Town Planning Appeals Tribunal.

The tribunal heard an appeal by a Mr. Pastore against the council's refusal to issue him a permit to build flats in Grieve Parade.

It said the reason for the council's refusal was "arbitrary," and had "no town-planning basis."

Mr. Pastore wants to build four villa units at 32 Grieve Parade.

The council's ground of refusal was that the proposed development did not comply with the flats code — it exceeded the area's one-third development provision.

In the code, the regulations state that in various parts of the city, only one-third of the available sites are to be developed with flats.

The tribunal stated, during the hearing, that it did not favor this method of limiting the flats in a street.

It felt that as flats are a permitted use in a residential area, all applications should at least be considered.

The tribunal said the council had refused the permit simply because of the code, and gave it no more consideration.

The tribunal said the one-third figure was arbitrary and had no town-planning basis.

The tribunal suggested that the best method of reducing the number of flats built, would be to lower the density of development permitted.

At present the council allows a density of one flat for each 2500 square feet. The tribunal felt that one to 3000 or 3500 square feet would be more suitable.

In summing up the tribunal's chairman said that, subject to modified plans being lodged with him, and to the conditions the council normally applies to unit development, the tribunal would issue a permit.

In the light of the tribunal decision, the city engineer, Mr. Ralph Simmons, has been asked to report to councillors on amendments to the flats code.

Advice on pre-school reading

A guest speaker will give a talk on books for pre-school children at the Robina Scott Kindergarten, Ferguson Street, Williamstown, on Friday (June 25) at 7.30 p.m.

Parents of pre-school and prep grade children are welcome. Supper will be provided.

Parents will be able to buy or order books during the evening.

The talk has been arranged by the Infant Welfare Department and kindergartens and play groups in the Williamstown area.

A knock for the knockers

SIR, — May I congratulate the Rev. Laurie Slee on his retaliation to the criticism of Willy's Coffee House.

I agree with him entirely, and feel that if more citizens were roused out of their complacency and "content", and became actively involved in helping as Mr. Slee does, then they would not need to "fear" the city's youth.

It seems that every time someone makes an effort to accept and try to understand non-conformists, there are always "knockers", usually those who have had the least involvement with them.

As a resident of this city for nearly 25 years, during which time I have had considerable involvement with local teenagers and young adults, I am not yet nearly as disillusioned by them as I am by some adults of my acquaintance.

In fact, I have a great admiration for them, and feel that much of their so-called antagonism is, indeed, a direct result of the many false values presented to them by "the hierarchy".

I believe they are now trying to sort out the muddle of their inheritance and to place values in their true perspective.

Keep up the good work, Mr. Slee. There are still some of us who back you.

(Mrs. Shirley Bold, Victoria Street, Williamstown.)

Auxiliary hands $5400 to Altona hospital

'Army' needs you on Red Shield Sunday

For one day each year, the Salvation Army asks the help of the community to help make the lives of others more worth while.

That one day is when the Red Shield Appeal is held, and this year the date has been set for Sunday, July 11.

Captain Gledson Wood, who leads the Army in Williamstown, is hoping that this year the district money-raising will exceed last year's total of $2500.

"We are constantly doing welfare work — often the needy will approach us first, or someone else will contact us for them," he said.

"Cases of people living cramped, tragic little lives, are found every day by the army, and money to give these people the help they need is vital to our work."

"We now even have a full-time social worker to serve the western suburbs — and he is flat out every day."

"We are called in to help make life easier for the latest pensioner, and we do need the public's support in the work," Capt. Wood said.

The appeal aims to raise $5½ million throughout Australia on July 11. Victoria's contribution is $800,000.

People willing to help door-knock the Altona North, Williamstown and Newport areas, can contact Capt. Wood at 27 Wellington Parade, Williamstown, or pick up an enrolment form at Norm Bernard's real estate agency in Douglas Parade.

Costs cut size of foreshore sports pavilion

The proposed Greenwich Reserve sports pavilion will have to be reduced from nearly 26 squares to 20 to come within the budget prepared by the Williamstown Council.

The larger building would have cost the council $22,000 more than originally allowed for the project.

The council had allocated $72,350 for the building, but the lowest tender received last month, from Mr. W. F. Toby, of Kororoit Creek Road, was $82,500.

Twelve quotes for the job were received. The highest, from Mr. Richard Ford, of Blyth Street, Altona, was for $142,000.

Commenting on the quotes, the director of the environment, Mr. Garnet Price, said tender prices "do not represent all of the costs involved."

"If the lowest tender is accepted, the estimated final cost of the project is $93,625, made up of the quote, costs not included in the contract ($7000) and estimated price rises ($4125)."

Mr. Price said the proposed building, to cover 238 square metres, would be an asset to the Williamstown foreshore.

"At the moment it appears the council has two alternatives open to it to provide accommodation for the sporting bodies using the area.

"They are to provide the additional $22,000, or to instruct me to prepare fresh plans to keep the costs within the available allocation."

"The present plans provide for a building of 238 square metres with a verandah of 115 square metres. An alternative budget sized building would be about 186 square metres."

"On Thursday, June 3, I had talks with representatives of the sporting bodies concerned, and asked them if a pavilion of 20 squares would meet their requirements."

"They would very much prefer to have the larger building, but if council's financial commitments do not allow this, the smaller building would be quite acceptable," Mr. Price said.

He said he felt the council had "little real alternative" but to instruct him to design a smaller pavilion.

Councillors adopted the recommendation.

Conservationist group picks new officers

Williamstown conservationists elected a new president and executive at their annual meeting last week.

The Williamstown Conservation and Planning Society reaffirmed its opposition to the Newport Power Station proposal, and agreed that the next major project should be the release of largely unused railway holdings on Pt. Gellibrand.

The new president is Mr. John Patterson, of The Esplanade.

The retiring president, Mr. John Marks, told members he could not carry on with the job, but would continue to support the group.

Dr. Cyril Curtain and Mr. Carillo Gantner are the society's new vice-presidents; Gwen Morris secretary; and Murray Hill, treasurer.

Mrs. Barbara Anderson, assisted by Margaret Davies, will be public-relations officer.

Members will hold their annual social night at the Craigantina Restaurant, Nelson Place, within the next few weeks.

Bookings should be made through Vicky

Gear wanted for centre Kids seek help for 'drop-ins'

The youngsters of the Altona North Migrant Community Centre have asked Altona Council to help everyone "have a fair go".

John Shaw and Christine Kanaris appealed to the council for help to equip the ANMCC "drop-in centre".

The centre has been going for several weeks and is open to children and teenagers each evening from Monday to Friday.

However, the only equipment the centre has available is a table tennis set the members made for themselves.

"The kids, 150 of us using the centre each week, have to wait quite some time until their turn to play comes around," John and Christine told councillors.

"We have bought packs of cards, which a few of us play, but there are other activities which we would prefer."

Look it over

"At our last committee meeting we decided to write to you asking for help to get more equipment so we can all have a fair go."

"We need a small billiard table, a Monopoly set, any type of gym equipment, a badminton set, a small soccer table, a record player, an 8 mm film projector, a basketball, cricket set, acoustic guitars, hookey and quoits."

"We hope you can help us with this request, and our committee invites any councillor who may be interested to drop in to our centre on any evening."

John and Christine said. The children have guest speakers one night each week, and so far they have had instruction on the safe riding of skateboards, a clubs available in Altona. The council deferred discussion on the request until the YMCA Outreach worker, Gina Fiske, attends a general-purpose committee meeting.

Hi Girls,

Revlon have just added three great new colors to their Greaseproof Eyeshadow range.

Pebble Blue — a pretty powder blue; Peppermint — a sparkly sea green; and Pluminy — a soft brownish mulberry.

For those who have not yet tried Natural Wonder Creaseproof Eyeshadow, it is a soft shiny cream that is creaseproof, smudgeproof and waterproof. So it can be applied in the morning and forgot about without needing touch-ups during the day.

Cyclax have just released a new product in Neojuvex — it is Collagen All Day Moisture Balm. It contains 3% of soluble collagen plus moisturisers. It is gentle, light and fluffy and quickly absorbed.

You may wonder what collagen is. Soluble collagen is a natural protein found in healthy, youthful skin, it holds moisture in the skin. As the skin ages it loses this protein, making it hard for the skin to retain vital moisture. Thus the skin loses its elasticity and lines appear.

Now you can help replace your soluble collagen content because Cyclax has included this remarkable ingredient in Neojuvex Collagen All Day Moisture Balm, and Collagen Intensive Treatment night cream.

Revlon have two terrific specials out at the moment on their latest fragrance 'Charlie'.

The first is a concentrated perfume spray for only $6.75, usual price $12.00. They also include with it a soft blue flannel purse, so it is convenient to carry around.

The second special is a pack containing a Charlie Eau De Cologne Spray and a Charlie Talc for only $4.95.

Councils move on parks plan

Williamstown councillors will prepare a submission for the Board of Works on a plan to develop the Williamstown Rifle Range and the Altona sports park as a regional reserve.

The council's conservation committee and the city's beach and foreshore advisory committee will work together on the proposal.

The project plan was put forward in the bay foreshore study recently completed by the Western Region Commission.

The range and sports park would be connected by a footbridge across the mouth of Kororoit Creek.

The executive secretary of the commission, Mr.

John Thompson, told councillors in a letter that he believed a good case could be made for the proposal.

"It may be useful to open negotiations with the Board of Works to explore the possibility of the board developing the area as a metropolitan park," he said.

"It could be pointed out that there is an imbalance between the western and eastern sides of Melbourne with the Yarra and Dandenong Valley park commitments of the board.

"It would also be a chance for the board to develop a seaside park," he added.

Benevolent Society invites members

Williamstown Ladies' Benevolent Society has issued an invitation for new members to join in its work.

The society gives immediate relief to families in need, such as those where separations have caused hardship or where social service benefits are pending.

In these cases, food orders, blankets and other goods are supplied, with the assistance of the State Relief Organisation.

The society's next meeting will be at Williamstown Town Hall at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, August 10.

Inquiries should be directed to the president, Mrs. C. Atkin, on 397 5478 or Mrs. R. Phelley, on 397 7877.

Camera club makes it 10

Williamstown Camera Club is set to celebrate its 10th birthday... despite predictions when it was formed it would not last.

During its 10 years, membership has never passed 25; but members consider this is due to the large number of similar clubs in the district — many longer established.

The club's annual meeting will be on Thursday, July 1, in the Methodist Church Hall, Pascoe Street, at 7.45 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Mr. Les Frewin, who will illustrate his address with slides.

Mr. Frewin is an expert in night photography.

Not all meetings of the club have speakers. The meeting after the annual meeting will be a social function, with Williamstown and the SEC Newport clubs conducting their annual competition.

Anyone interested is invited to attend both or either.

Membership fees are reasonable and the club caters for people of all ages.

Oom-pom-pah for Paisley

Paisley High School will be able to start up a brass band with surplus instruments from Altona North High School.

The instruments were lent to Altona North High after the closdown of the Altona City Band.

The decision to allow Paisley High use of the surplus came after a letter to the Altona Council from Mrs. E. Jones, secretary of the School's Parents' and Citizens' Association.

Mrs. Jones said the association felt music was an important part of life.

The school was forming a band.

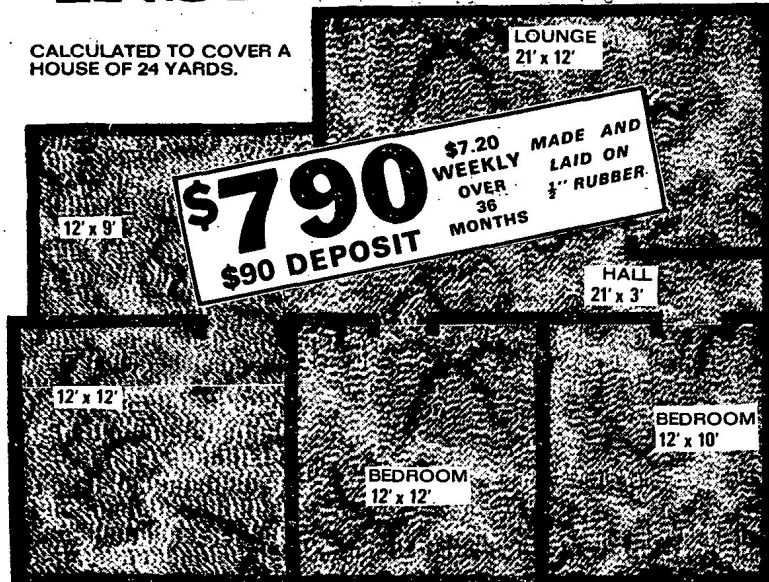

"We feel it is possible that there may be future musicians in our school, and it is our desire as an association, and as rate-payers, to give them all the help possible," she said.

"Any assistance you are able to give would be greatly appreciated," Mrs. Jones said.

Mr. Gary Fisher, music teacher at Altona North and Paisley High Schools, has been asked to provide the council with a list of instruments held by both schools.

Gulls kick 10 in 3rd term

It's official - the Seagulls are back on the winning list after their absence of many - too many - weeks.

In fact the Seniors, Reserves and Thirds made it a treble for the club at the weekend.

Sending Waverley home with tail between legs, the Senior Gulls kicked 23.21 (159) to 21.9 (135).

Williamstown didn't take the lead until the second quarter. The rangy Waverley player McClure had booted five goals to the first change.

The second quarter opened with Mike Brown, back in the side after being dropped last week, goaling from the boundary.

It was a beauty, and the crowd roared its approval. It wasn't too long before Mick Mahoney found Brown for another major, and the Gulls hit the front as Gary Harley booted a point.

McClure goaled again, the game see-sawed. Percy goaled for the Gulls, McClure kicked his seventh, and Waverley Panthers went ahead by seven points.

At the internal the Panthers led by 19 points.

Then came an incredible third quarter.

A rejuvenated Williamstown took the field, and the goals came thick and fast.

Mark Cross, Mick Mahoney, Bob Percy and Gary Harley all scored, and the Gulls looked a top side.

Peter Gardner kicked two more, Harley, Cross and Brown added another three, and Williamstown had added 10.6 for the term.

Waverley came back in the final quarter to score five more goals, but majors by Bob Percy, Mark Cross, Mike Brown and Mick Mahoney sealed the Panthers' fate.

Goals: Brown 7, Harley Percy 4, Cross, Gardner 3, Mahoney 2. Best: Percy, Colin Boyd, Crown, Gardner, John Fanning, Harley, Mahoney, Peter Moore.

Williamstown Central Motors Award: Percy 3, Boyd 2, Moore 1. Progressive total: Boyd 13; Percy 7, Kennedy, Cross, Moore 3, Porcena, Scott 2, Fanning, Kerry, Gardner 1.

RESERVES:

The team had its second win for the season, with Greg Tweedley starring in the centre. Scores: Gulls 14.17 (101) d. Waverley 11.11 (77). Goals: Richards 4, Scott 3, Woodruff 2, Briner, Walker, Garth, Kriptopolous, Foote. Best: Tweedley, Kriptopolous, Scott.

Thirds: Williamstown 18.15 (123) d. Waverley 13.16 (118). Goals: Geotz 7, Charman 6, McCallig 3, Yarnall, Taylor.

West Newport's best: team effort. Goals: Durham 3, Leighton 3, Mul-downey 3, Cavanagh 2, Browne, Kerr, R. Chitty, Cutler, Orr, Pitt.

West Newport Seconds lost an exciting an entertaining curtain-raiser by two goals.

The back lines dominated a low-scoring game.

West led at all three changes, but Werribee slowly got the upper hand in the last quarter.

Five fight for perch in snooker

Five teams are battling for the top position on the Western Suburbs Ace Snooker Association A-grade ladder after the third round last week.

Altona Working Men's Club held the top position, on percentage from Oriental - both on 30 points.

Strand is in third position with Tarmac making up the four, both on 29 points but knocking at the door of the four is Yacht Club, with 29 points, just out of the four on percentage.

Other teams' points in A Grade are Crown 24, Bristol 20, Pier 18, Rifle Club 18 and Victoria Inn 14.

In the B Grade competition, Victoria Inn has a comfortable lead, with 38 points.

Yacht Club is in a steady second position, on 33 points with Rifle Club, 25 third and Bristol, 24, fourth.

Bristol's place in the four is shaky, however, with Strand also on 24 and out on percentage and Crown in sixth position, with 23 points.

Others are AWMC 22, Oriental 22, Tarmac 18 and Pier 13.

Vikings too classy

by ALAN BURKITT

Altona City raced away from Brooklyn in a hard-fought, and at times spiteful game at Altona on Sunday.

Most of the Brooklyn first game for some time, team appeared more eager to fight than play football, and it was to the Vikings' credit that they were able to withstand the battering and finish all over their opponents.

A drew Donnelly brought back memories of champion full-forward Ron Schwabe, who retired after last year's grand final, as he marked brilliantly and kicked nine great goals.

Gordon Wilson was a brilliant rover, while Steve Stiles, Mal Tisdale and Garry Nolan formed a winning centre line.

Mick O'Connor, at full-back, led a tight back-line and limited Brooklyn's scoring opportunities.

Geoff Bend after a slow start, pulled down some towering marks at centre half-back, and is settling down well on the back line after playing most of his football at half-forward.

Scores: Altona City 17.15 (117) d. Brooklyn 8.5 (53).

Best: A. Donnelly, G. Wilson, S. Stiles, Mal Tisdale, M. O'Connor, G. Bend, G. Nolan.

Goals: Donnelly 9, A. Walgers 5, E. Valente, P. Thompson, G. Wilson.

RESERVES: The reserves' curtain-raiser was also a bone-crunching affair. The Vikings almost kicked themselves out of the game in the first quarter.

At one stage their score was 1.9, and Brooklyn were kept in the game by accurate kicking.

A feature of the game was the great first-up performance of Wayne Jones.

Wayne was a star in the 1974 senior side, when he finished second to captain Mal Tisdale in the club best and fairest award.

He played last season with South Melbourne under 19s, and went to VFA side Brunswick for a few games this year.

Steven Grainger carried on his good roving form, and Roy Scariff, in his
